

Will We Win?

New Words:

fan

win

Plot Summary

There is a fishing contest that Ann and Mit want to win. They catch a fish, but it is only a tiny little one. Ann decides to feed the fish so that it will become big. The fish becomes ill, but Ann fans him back to health. With their fattened fish, Ann and Mit finally win the contest.

"We need a fat fish.

We will win with it."

"That fish is not fat.

We will not win with that fish."

“Fill this and set the wet fish in it.”

"That fish is sad.

We will not win with a sad fish."

"If he is fat, we will win."

"The sad fish needs this.
Then we will win."

"This will fill the sad fish."

"This fat fish is not well.
Fan the fish, Ann."

Mit sits.

Ann fans the fat fish.

"This fish is sad.

If we fan it with this fan,
it will feel well."

"This fish is fat and well.
Will we win with it?"

"This fish is fat.
Who will win?"

“Did we win?

Did the fat fish win?”

"We did win with the fat fish."
